Think about the congregation or group of people with whom you have been working. Briefly describe your observations about the dynamics of congregational life, ministry and denominational life in this group. For example, has there been spiritual or numeric growth, conflict, new leaders developing or a lack of leadership? Can you explain why these may have happened in terms of the internal dynamics of the congregation?

Describe your observations about the impact the wider culture and society has on ministry in this setting:

Are there any further comments you would like to make on this placement?
